

Alert! - Wednesday, July 11, 2012
Bank of America Short Sale Scam

OLD REPUBLIC NATIONAL TITLE INSURANCE COMPANY

Alert!

Old Republic National Title Insurance Company was recently alerted by Bank of America ("B of A") that a short sale scam was being perpetrated involving properties on which B of A is the holder of a note secured by a mortgage or deed of trust. B of A stated in a letter to the Company that the perpetrators of the scam send approval letters to title companies that mimic legitimate approval letters from B of A, including the bank's logo, formatting and language.

In response to this issue, B of A states that it has updated its existing short sale approval procedures.

To read the complete Alert! which includes the updated approval procedures, click here.

Should you have any questions, please contact our Legal Department by calling 888-678-1700.

www.oldrepublictitle.com/txnational

↔ FORWARD TO A FRIEND

888-678-1700